Matt & Ben, Beyond the Proscenium Productions

Review: I really enjoyed this show; it had some hilarious moments and some really honest moments too. I can totally imagine these odd things really having happened to Matt Damon and Ben Affleck; I'd like to believe that is really how the script for Good Will Hunting was written, it's too funny, and the two ladies in the show do a really great job of making you forget they are not a couple of guys. I also liked the fact that you didn't have to have seen Good Will Hunting to get the jokes or enjoy the show (although I did appreciate some very clever references). The show is only about an hour, go see this play for a good laugh.

Review: This is such a fun show! You can really tell how much heart the actors have put into this production, and it makes it really easy to enjoy the show. Tons of laughs. Go, "Matt & Ben!"

Review: I've seen this show twice now- they're running some really good specials- and I laughed SO hard, both times! These girls are AMAZING. I'm going to check my calendar to see if I have time to see it again this weekend before they close!
