audience reviews

My Name is Rachel Corrie, Beyond the Proscenium Productions

Review: A stunningly powerful performance by Ms. Tygar Hicks. From the moment she spoke the first line, I was drawn in to the thoughts, visions, smells, hearing, and tastes of Rachel Corrie. A 90 minute glimpse in to the real world of the Israel-Palestine conflict that left me better informed and emotion filled. I highly recommend this production!

Review: Saw the (sold out) Sunday matinee and was powerfully moved. Tygar Hicks' performance was brilliant. My thanks to all who's hard work brought this important production to Sacramento.

Review: You are an informed person. You read the news and say "That's awful." You see some pictures on TV and ask why they can't get along. But when you are confronted with a passionate, first-hand account of the extreme brutality that is routine for the citizens of Gaza, you realize you know nothing! Tygar Hicks and director Karen Nylund took us there. Ms Hicks is nothing short of brilliant!
