audience reviews

CATS, California Musical Theatre (Music Circus)

Review: A very good show. The choreography and vocals are tops. CATS doesn't have a plot--it is about cats, very unusual cats. People who know cats will love the references to cat's behavior. Very well directed and choreographed. Don't miss it! Fun show for the kids too.

Review: This is the second time I have seen CATS (first time on broadway) and while the show has some fun songs, costumes, and dancing. It is very overrated. There is no real plot, if you were not told the actors were cats, you could not tell them from other animals ? I dont understand while people say kids would enjoy this, as it is hard to understand what they are saying at times, thus hard to follow. While any Andrew Webber show is fun, most big time musicals have much more story then this.
