audience reviews

Evita, California Musical Theatre (Music Circus)

Review: WOW! What a fantastic show. I saw the preview Monday night and it was just spectacular. How fortunate are the people of Sacramento to be able to see Julia Murney starring in the title role...She was just phenominal. She takes your breath away. The man playing Che floats to the top range of his voice so easily...he is wonderful! The show is very well done, adding in actual pictures of the real Eva Peron that hang above the stage during big moments of the show. This is not something to be missed!!!

Review: I have seen Evita before in a larger venue, so it was a different experience seeing it in such a more intimate setting. I thought the cast was mostly amazing, particularly the man who played Che, though I did not care for the woman who played Evita's voice at all. She seemed off key and very harsh toned. Apparently she is a big name, but I can't for the life of me figure out why. She ruined the experience for me as well as the person I went with. It is worth going if you haven't seen Evita if you can get past the poor choice of casting in the main role, but anyone can appreciate and enjoy Che's amazing performance.
