audience reviews

The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, California Musical Theatre (Broadway Sacramento)

Review: I thought it would be decent but i found myself regretting paying 60 dollars... the opening scene was very drab and didnt grab at all, some of the singers were great and had excelent solos but i found half the group lacking in grabbing me with there songs.. there was alot of sexual humor and the crowd participation was nice but being already up in the top section some of the physical humor was missed and i wish things could have been made bigger, motion wise... it was decent but i dont feel i would recomend it

Review: This was an excellent show done very well. It had some very funny moments, the songs were great, and the acting top notch. The audience participation by four volunteers added a very funny note. All in all a very enjoyable hour and forty five minutes at the theatre. By the way, there is no intermission, so make that bathroom stop before you get your seat.
