Laundry and Bourbon and Other Short Plays, Magic Circle Theatre

Review: The Magic Circle makes magic again providing 2 hours of fun starting with LAUNDRY and BOURBON, starring Kris Hunt, Deborah Forester, and Patty Lewis telling the tale of three housewives on a hot Texas afternoon....and finishing with Bob Gerould and Patty Lewis showing off the hilarious side of senility.

Review: I really enjoyed this show. "The Role of Della" had me in stitches. The actors did a great job. They were a wonderful ensemble. Watching five one-act plays is a different experience, but it sure was entertaining!

Review: L & B the 1st of 5 - 1 act plays is a great character study of 3 women in the 70's, who married for different reasons. Elizabeth loves & accepts her husband, who is unfaithful. Amy Lee, married for money & status. And Hatti, married for practical reasons. Very funny. #4, The Roll of Della is short, energetic and hilarious. These performances are a must see as Magic Circle is showcasing the versatility of some very fine performers.
