audience reviews

A Year With Frog and Toad, Davis Musical Theatre Company (Young Performers' Theatre)

Review: Absolutely amazing! The show is hilarious, with a brilliant script and some really cute songs. (In particular, the "Cookies" song, which sold a lot of cookies over intermission!) The kids themselves have a lot of energy and make it a great show. Standouts: Wil Forkin, playing Toad, has a great voice that suits his role, and his acting is also superb. Hattie Craven, who sings in Shivers as the Young Frog, belts out her notes so you can't miss a note. I also thought that Gemma Vanover, the Turtle, was hilarious and has a fabulous voice. This show was great, and it also brought back memories of reading the book years ago as a kid. Do not miss it!

Review: Great production of a great show. Very charming. Very talented group of kids. I loved Wil Forkin as Toad! I would especially recommend this show to families or anyone who read the Frog & Toad books as a kid.
