Rudolph's Christmas Magic, Davis Musical Theatre Company

Review: Delightful, Interactive, Entertaining, Excellent Presentation! A wonderful Holiday event for all ages! Before the show in the lobby our grandchildren frosted cookies, colored pictures, made ornaments, and listened to the tight blend and harmony of the Davisville Quartet. The show itself was executed with precision and perfect timing. The children were absolutely adorable as snowflakes and the elves moved about with jumps and whimsy just like 'real elves'. The cast sang out with confidence and didn't miss a note. Dances, including a clean tap number were choreographed and presented in such a way as to flow with the presentation, these performers move and dance like pros. All of the cast were well rehearsed and costumed to provide visual as well as audible enjoyment. I won't give away the interactive portions of the production, but suffice it to say kids of all ages, grandparents too, took part. Our grandchildren left with very special memories of how sharing kindness and hoping at this time of year can result in a miracle. As we left they carried their handmade items, a pair of antlers and light up nose (at only $5. this was a great deal) and perfect for the children to play with and remember the characters they got to know and love, in their hearts they carried the memory of a special night with Grandma & Grandpa going to the theater. A must see for all ages, we walked away with fond memories of a wonderful event and exceptional entertainment!
