The Secret Garden, Davis Musical Theatre Company

Review: GORGEOUS production! The voices are top-notch and Kaylynn Rothleder throws a fabulous tantrum!!! Her eyebrows are tremendously expressive and she never holds back. The orchestra could use a reminder of the musical rule: if you can't hear everyone else, you're too loud; some of the dialogue was lost to underscoring.

Review: OMG, what a night! I couldn't hear the actors at all. The band was so loud and sometimes flat. Frustrating.

Review: WOW, what a show! The best I have seen at DMTC or any local theater for some time! The cast are all fabulous actors/singers, from the leads to the smaller roles. The sets (often a weak point for DMTC) are simple but elegant, the costumes are beautiful, and the overall production is very touching and memorable. The orchestra had some off-key moments, and tended to be a bit louder than I think most people would have liked, but I could definitely still hear the actors at pretty much all times. A really wonderful production, not to be missed!!
