audience reviews

Six Women With Brain Death, Lambda Players

Review: I haven't laughed that hard in a long time. This show is silly and poignant at the same time. This production is not exactly the same as the previous production so if you saw it before don't let that stop you from seeing it again. You will still enjoy yourself.

Review: The show is a non-stop laugh fest. All six women are very talented, especially with their singing and timing. Skits which stood out included Rambi, Severed Head, Barbie and Ken, and God is an Alien. I saw the play a few years back, and am very glad I went a second time (before it goes away) See the play with a friend, laugh a lot, then maybe later discuss what you thought were the messages in the skits.
