audience reviews

Macbeth*, Sacramento City College (Sacramento Shakespeare Festival)

Review: i thought this production was terrific! The Kabuki and Noh touches are very effective, the witches are excellent, and the leading actors are solid. The fights are exciting to watch and the production just rips along. Best curtain call I've seen in a long while. Kim McCann is going out with a bang! GO SEE THIS SHOW! You won't be sorry.

Review: This was a fantastic production. The actors playing Macbeth and Lady Macbeth were excellent. The three witches were spooky and provided a ominous feel throughout. The fighting sequences were well choreographed. Bring a blanket and go see Macbeth. You won't be sorry.

Review: Wow! I didn't know if I thought the concept would work but it really did. The show is tightly paced, compact, and the concept works beautifully. The fights are exciting, the cast and direction are both excellent. The witches are really scary. Don't bring your young kids but DO get a blanket and go. One of the best things in the park in years.

Review: I LOVED this show. It was beautifully staged and the aesthetics such as set, costumes, lighting, and sound design are first rate. So is the acting! If you have never seen Macbeth, go see it. If you have seen productions of Macbeth before, go see it. You will not be disappointed.

though it was hindered by sound system problems in the first act. i think anyone who has the chance should go and see this show before it closes.

best thing i've seen at the festival in several years.
