The Sleeping Beauty, Sutter Street Theatre

Review: We saw this show on opening day and as always with Sutter Street Theatre, it was FANTASTIC!!! It is not your typical Sleeping Beauty story. It is a musical with great songs, and a jester takes you through the story. All the actors are superb and there is everything you want to see from a dragon, the evil fairy, the good fairy, a gypsy, a magician, the king and queen, the princess, and the prince, and the thorn bush. The comedy is spot on, and the choreography is great. This is a show for people of all ages, it is both funny and magical, and the performances are outstanding!

Review: Well done variation of Sleeping Beauty. It was very funny and the cast did an amazing job. The acting by each actor was so believable and as a whole the cast meshed so well together, great chemistry. Kids, adults, the young and the old will all enjoy this one.

Review: Sleeping Beauty is a delightful show and well worth the price of admission. The show starts out with clutzy Chester the Jester telling the story and proceeds with humorous dialog throughout. The Prince is quite funny and all the other characters including the "fire breathing dragon" lend their personalities and talent to make it a very enjoyable show. The whole family from children to grandparents will find it entertaining.

Review: What a fun telling of the classic tale! Very good comedic timing and pacing. A couple of the songs could use some help but it was so much fun. I remember seeing this version elsewhere but they played it so seriously and straightforward. Allen and his talented cast pay it respect but also don't take it too seriously. Brady Tait and Steve Read are especially funny...and you MUST see the dragon. Another success, Sutter Street Theater!

Review: It was excellent. Allen Schmetz has done it again. A wonderful play for both children and adults. The cast is excellent and there are laughs throughout the production. Very well done!!!!

Review: An amazing family treat! We just moved here and were so impressed with the charm of the Sutter Street Theatre. The cast of "The Sleeping Beauty" was wonderful! The joy in our kids eyes while they watched was priceless. We will for sure be going back!

Review: I am very impressed by and proud of the local theatre! I was surprised at the quality of acting and the music and singing! Excellent! Didn't think it would keep my attention as I was there merely for my 4 year old...but it held my attention throughout and genuinely made me smile several times!!! (can't say I laughed aloud like my 4 year old but close enough!). Never a dull moment! Thank you for some real quality live theatre I can show my kids!
