audience reviews

Holiday in the Hills, Stage Nine Theatre

Review: Holiday in the Hills was a wonderful show! So many beautiful voices and unique songs. The cast ranged in ages, which was good for the audience to relate to. Also, the costumes were beautifully put together, kudos. All the jokes were funny and the dancing was enjoyable. I would recommend this show for anyone and everyone! Bring the family and have a nice night out!

Review: The musical drama was delightful. The play was written from much actual Folsom history and made into a hilarious, interesting version with all age groups. The background scenes were excellent, costumes were colorful. Audience participation was fun. And even the dog was cute!

Review: Holiday in the Hills was so much fun. We loved the dog, audience participation and songs. We were pleasantly surprised with the unique variety of music. This show is a perfect low cost outing for a family. We would have loved more matinees. One drawback was the loud motorcycle motors in the background.
