Review: I recently attended this show and found it to be both funny and a bit spooky! Ichabod was quite believable as the scared schoolteacher and Brom Bones was absolutely hysterical. Katrina was outstanding and had the "boys" wrapped around her finger. Lastly, the narrators added some very entertaining "side performances". I would recommend that you see this show!

Review: We thoroughly enjoyed this performance of the Legend of Sleepy Hollow. The direction, set and lighting was very effective and made for a perfect atmosphere. Very creative with the horse scene. All the actors were outstanding and brought realism to each part. It was a very enjoyable time and one that we would highly recommend to others.

Review: I went to this show and now I've gone every time, I can't get enough!!!! It had a blend of everything, comady, romance, and espesially horror. The part whith the horse farmer was sooooooofunny! Ichabod and Brom were very great actors and they had great chemestry whith katrina(another great actress). The narrators added a fantastic effect. I would recomend this show for any theatergoer or nontheatergoer. An absolute brilliant performance!

Review: What a great show! Ichabod, Katrina, and Brom played their oarts perfectly. There is a little humor, a little fear, and a little love. What could be better than that?!?

Review: I saw this show this past weekend and it was great. I was in this show as a teenager and it was a great reenactment! Brian Farmer as Ichabod portrayed exactly the right character. Hmm...I am still wondering...where did he end up???? The legend continues....
