audience reviews

Mary, Mary, Stage Nine Theatre

Review: Mary, Mary is an absolute delight. We hurt from laughing so much. I highly recommend this wonderful show.

Review: I was pleasantly surprised as well as enormously entertained. This is truly one of the best performances by an ensemble cast that I've seen in a very long time. From opening lines to bows, this is a GREAT performance. The cast is wonderful, they are very believable and consistent. The acting does not show. I absolutely, loved this show. It is worth more than the ticket price. The entire cast delivered stellar performances and were wonderful. It is a gift to watch them perform. The director, Charlie Holliday should be very proud. This is a rare and superb play.

Review: We had a great time. Fun all the way through with lot's of laughs. Highly recommended.

Review: Living in San Francisco and attending many wonderful shows over the years, I was pleasantly surprised to find this hidden gem of a production. The cast of actors were talented and nothing but true professionals! I noticed a few small slip ups of lines, but the actors continued without missing a beat. The comedic timing was great & the audience "got it" as there were many hardy laughs. My favorite character was Tiffany, played by Arielle Robbins, who brought a delightfully ditzy, but sweet innocence to the part. This entire cast deserves a huge "BRAVO"!!!
