audience reviews

The Surprising Story of the Three Little Pigs, Stage Nine Theatre

Review: It was a great show, children and adults will love it. The cast does a wonderful job. I love the costumes. It's a must see!!

Review: I saw this show with a handful of people ranging in age from four years old to sixty-five, and to a one, we loved it! It's fast paced, energetic, and funny. The costuming is simple, but effective. The actors are animated, but believable. I was amazed by the comic timing of the young actors - it was pitch perfect. Our whole group was thoroughly entertained. So much so, that two of them will be returning for a second viewing this weekend. It may be a small theatre venue, but they put on big shows!

Review: We have seen this show twice since it opened with family and friends, and once again Stage Nine has done it! The combination of the three stories intertwined is very humorous and all the actors are spot on with their comedy! Young and old alike will enjoy this production and of course the ending has a great message for all. This theater knows what audiences really enjoy and this show is a true treasure!

Review: I took my two and four year old to the show and sat in the front row. I was concerned that my two year old would lose interest, but the show was so great and kept her attention. My four year old proclaimed at intermission, "I love this this show." Considering that my children were happy with it made me happy with it. I think the acting was wonderful, the costumes were fitting and set was appropriate. Good Job Stage Nine!!

Review: Love this show--very well performed and a wonderful play for kids of all ages!
