audience reviews

The Carsino Show, Stage Nine Theatre

Review: This was a very witty and entertaining show. The musical numbers were great. Eddie Marinara, Johnny's sidekick and wiseguy, stole the show. We all had a wonderful time and would definitely recommend it anyone looking for a good time.

Review: From the moment I stepped in I was greeted, "Youse got the right place. This here's the theata." It was continual laughs at the mob-type atmosphere as I was told to swoon, "Johnny I love ya" when he was introduced - and reminded "Everything Johnny says is funny, got that?" Act after act Johnny brought out a variety of song and smaltz, group and solo numbers; great costuming and 13 talented cast. I loved it!

Review: Here's a hurray for the Johnny Carsino Show! It's full of mob-style 50's nostalgia with a cast of 10. Jokesters with sunglasses brought on a string of show guests - musical solos, trios, and group ensembles with flashy costumes that kept me laughing and applauding for over two hours. I loved it.

Review: This show was a real kick! I laughed a lot! A hilarious take off of course on the Johnny Carson Show. The MC Eddie Marinara stole the show. This guy had me laughing as soon as I walked in the door. A medley of show tunes and 40's and 50's songs. I fell in love with Frankie Fortuna with his 60 minute man! The cast was a nice mix of different type of singers and Coronado Funucci had a big beautiful voice, just like his great stage presence! A show that will having you tapping your feet through and through! I loved it!
