audience reviews

Harvey, Sutter Street Theatre

Review: Wonderful! It's the first show I've seen at the Sutter Street Theatre. The entire cast was hysterical. The actor playing Elwood was almost 'too' appropriate. The on stage relationship between the characters Veta and Myrtle (mother/daughter) was great! Myrtle's character ... an obviously 'frustrated' single female, perfect! I loved the show. I sort of kept thinking a man in a big rabbit suit would pop out somewhere. Go see it!

Review: It was a delightful play in the small and close to the cast sutter street theater. The story is very light and humorous and suspenseful for the sudience. I think the plot has a spiritual depth to it and was symbollic. The show follows the original pulitzer prise winning dialog and acting. Casting was great. The scene changes were as fun as the plot. A great sunday matinee event ---stepping out after onto historic Sutter street in Folsom.
