A Christmas Carol, Sacramento Theatre Company

Review: Wow!

Review: This is a must see show! Matt K. Miller's Scrooge is well crafted and had the whole audience rooting for his redemption. It would have been easy to play Scrooge as hateable, but it takes skill to convince us that he is someone we can empathize with and one who is worthy of redemption. The rest of the leads were delightful and well cast. The young people, mostly from the STC 2 company were also worthy of praise. This version is darker and more gohstly than in previous years which was an exciting change thanks to Michael Laun's direction. We really enjoyed this theater experience.

Review: I thoroughly enjoyed this production...and i could tell that all of the young professionals and everyone worked very hard and had a great time, and that the show was WONDERFUL!! Also, the show was very "creepy"...:)

Review: Best Christmas show ever!!!
