audience reviews

Resting Place, Sacramento Theatre Company

Review: This is a powerful presentation. Essentially a two-person story, the lead actors are superb. The male role is somewhat more demanding and performed incredibly well, as is the female lead. Subtle emotions were conveyed without over dramatization. A serious subject - forgiveness - is presented with moments of humor as well as appropriate emotional displays, which were well excacuted. There were also some surprises and the ending was quite touching. All-in-all a very worthwhile theatre experience. Kudos to the cast, the director and the set designer - along with everyone else involved in this production. Thank you!
