audience reviews

Tuna Christmas, Woodland Opera House

Review: Pre-show we were very excited to attend the show. However we did end up leaving due to the many profanities and the lack of humor. I would not recommend this show to anyone sad to say. We had a very large group and paid over $200 to see the show. It was quite a let down.
- Blue Christmas

Review: I went to the 12/7 matinee and had a fantastic time! I loved this show! It was very funny and Bob Baxter and Jeff Keane showed tremendous talent! Each character was different from the one previous. The characters were believable, adorable, and very very funny! Having some relatives from Texas ourselves, my family related to the quirky characters. Each had great facial expressions and fabulous comic timing! Quick costume changes were almost unbelievable. Bob and Jeff should be applauded! They deserved the mini standing ovation after the performance! Well done!
