audience reviews

Three The Hard Way, Yomi Productions

Review: What a fantastic play! Live drama. Poignant and entertaining. Three sisters gather to do the things necessary when their father dies. Each of the four characters, (the fourth is the father) were played with attention to detail and an affinity for the characters. You may need a tissue, but not because of some unbelievable sap. These characters are brought to life by the actors and the story resonates truth.

Review: This is a really good show with a strong ensemble cast. It made me laugh and cry - it was like being invited into real peoples lives and seeing how they deal with death and each other. I highly recommend this show.
