Anne of Green Gables, T.H.E. Actor's Workshop and Integral Theatre Company

Review: I want to start out saying that I have both attended plays from the Actor's Workshop. I have always been impressed with the kind of quality productions put on by these young adults in the past. However, Anne of Green Gables was by far the best production I've seen this company put forth. Every member of the cast leaves an impression, but the young actress who played Anne was simply phenomenal. I had to remember that I wasn't at the music circus watching Little Orphan Annie a couple times, because her charisma, and heck, even just looking spot-on for the character, was overwhelming... in the best way possible. There were some minor technical difficulties, but if you don't leave this play with a smile on your face, you may want to make sure you're heart is still working. Highly recommended for all ages (the children in front me were having a blast), and even to those men out there who are worried about the "chick flick" aspect of the story. I had never seen the movies of this story on purpose! I was sucked right into this, and enjoyed every minute.

Review: As always, T.H.E. Actor's Workshop produced another excellent performance. Wonderful in every way with an outstanding cast and set. A must see for those who cherish joining in with Anne and all her adventures.

Review: The setting on the stage was simple, yet effective. The actors portrayed their characters extremely well, the dialogues kept your attention, the story-line captivated the audience. The play was comical in nature, family-oriented, organized. This is a "must see" for all ages!

Review: T.H.E. Actor's Workshop(as always) did a great job with Anne Of Green Gables! Comical and sweet, this is a wonderful production to go see. Appropriate and fun for all ages. The entire cast was wonderful, but I was particularly impressed with the roles of Matthew Cuthbert and Rachel Lynde.

Review: I really enjoyed every bit of the show...the actors all did a great job. I like the way the stage was set up,along with the way they changed the scenes quickly without any difficulty.I think the actors for Anne,Matthew,and Mrs. Blewett did an absolutely wonderful job. After reading the book and watching the movie,I don't think that the actor for Gilbert had quite captured the characters real personality yet. I noticed a few errors in the play that were covered up very well...I could tell that the actors all got along well, and had a close camaradie. Even the the people behind the scenes did a great job with the lights,props,and stage setup. It was appropriate for all ages,humorous and entertaining,and it captivated everyones attention. Being a big Anne of Green Gables fan, I give it a thumbs up!!!

Review: The actors did a great job in projection and emotions. They all stayed in character and did not miss a cue. The stage was set up very well, and the lighting added to it all quite nicely. All in all, they did a fantastic job!

Review: What a delightful Mother's day show this was. It was just like watching the movie. The cast did an outstanding job. Everyone who took part in putting this production together should be commended for all the work they put into it making it the success that it was. It was a must see for all ages. Very comical,charming and fully entertaining. All the characters portrayed by the actors and actress' gave a star performance.

Review: For a group of high school actors, this was an exceptional performance. The transitions and set changes were very smooth. The story line was engaging and funny at times. Character portrayals were performed extremely well. I especially enjoyed Mrs Spencer's exquisite British accent. Diana Barry's imitation of a tipsy school girl was very believable and well done by a girl just learning the art of acting. And the star of the show, Anne, played by Megan Pedersen, was every bit as funny, imaginative, and animated as the real character portrayed in the book "Anne of Green Gables". This is a quality performance well worth seeing by the whole family.

Review: The whole play was a joy. The cast was incredible and played their part to perfection. I really enjoyed the whole experience. It is well worth the time and money and I would recommend it to all my friends.

Review: I was really excited to see this play. I have been a huge fan of AOGG since I was young. Unfortunately, this play was a let down. The characters (except the lead) were not interesting. The seats were arranged so poorly that my daughter & I could not see a thing the whole time. Not worth the money for the show or the drive all the way up there...

Review: Great! A high-quality performance! The young actors were enchanting! It is a family-friendly venue and a delight for the whole family. We will definitely be back for future shows!

Review: The character Anne was good overall. I needed to see more eye contact though between her and the people to whom she was speaking. Anne is a dreamer extraordinaire but when her head is not in the clouds she is intently looking at the person. Marilla and Rachel I would have liked to see much more facial expressions and vocal dynamics. I loved Matilda Blewitt. Miss Stacey was also very good and Dianna did a good job at playing drunk. I would encourage these young people to watch the movie"Anne of Green Gables" the acting is fantastic and they could learn alot.

Review: I thought the play was very well done. The actors did a very wonderful job in all areas. They all knew their lines, personality of the character being played and did them well. The play had many parts of the original writings of the book.
