Seussical, The Musical, American River College, Theatre Arts Department

Review: The Fair Oaks Theatre Festival has done it again. Seussical The Musical scores big with all ages. A funny story with an elephant, birds, monkeys, a sour kangaroo, the whos, and of course a cat in a hat. While all actors did well, Ray Keller, Christopher Carlson, Joe Hart, Deane Calvin, Mary Cobb, and Corey D. Winfield were exceptional. Please take "kids" of all ages to this fun evening of live entertainment.

Review: The Fair Oaks Theatre Festival has done it again. Seussical The Musical scores big with all ages. The cast includes an elephant, birds, monkeys, a sour kangaroo, the whos, and of course a cat in the hat. All the performers do a great job !! The songs are catchy and fun. For an inexpensive evening of entertainment this a very good time, please give it a try!!

Review: This show is a blast, you really must see! Such a talented cast, for a very low fee! Miss Maizie McBird, she steals the whole show, but its the Cat and The Whos who give it sparkle and flow. Horton and Gertrude, they move it along, and in the second act, sing a pretty little song. So go see this soon, it is the best of the best, rent a cushion and then rest, by the dark of the moon.
- Definately not Dr. Seuss

Review: LOVED IT, LOVED IT, LOVED IT! We had so much fun, and the outdoor atmosphere was refreshing! The most convincing character to us was Maizy, but our two favorites were Gertrude McFuzz and the sour kangaroo.
