Underneath the Lintel, B Street Theatre

Review: Again, David Silberman comes through, in this one man portrayal of a reclusive librarian who is searching for for an answer to a mystery, and who finds himself and some wisdom in the process. While the tale is elegantly woven, and the message of value, it is wrapped in delicious humor and the time flies by! A Theater tip; this is part of the new "3 Series" held in the Family Theater space at the B Street. Seat cushions are advisable ;)
