audience reviews

Wittenberg, B Street Theatre (Mainstage)

Review: Intelligent, witty, and hilarious! We attended a preview of the show Saturday night and had a wonderful time. Lots of fun, fast paced, thought-provoking dialogue that kept you wondering "What edge will they dance along next?". As if this weren't enough to keep our attention, there's a surprise scene, towards the end of the show, that enlists the whole audience in a "Thelma and Louise" drive. It takes us right over the edge, laughing the whole way down. David Pierini can surely commit! Thanks again B Street for bringing another fresh, thought provoking, contemporary, and highly entertaining work to the Sacramento community. This one packs a wallop!
