audience reviews

Closer, Big Idea Theatre

Review: Excellent show. Has a strong cast that handles the adult content and the English accents with ease. One of the few plays I've seen lately that didn't have me wondering when it would end, I was totally absorbed for every minute. See it.

Review: SUPERB!!! Actors' performance and entire production could not have been done any better. ALL the actors became their respective characters, believable and charismatic. As an audience member, you felt a little of the pain that each character was experiencing - they were THAT GOOD! Recommendation: SEE THIS PLAY, and support this quaint yet professional and enthusiastic theatre!!!

Review: I thought that the play was too long for me. But there were parts of it that I liked quite a lot - scene from a sex chat room, interaction with a stripper, many intimate scenes - mostly arguments. The play was unusual, unique, and sometimes touching. I don't have my program, so I don't know the players' names, but the fellow who played the doctor was real to me. He intensely projected the intense ambiguity of intimate love-hate relationships. Academy Award stuff.
