audience reviews

The Complete History of America (Abridged), Big Idea Theatre

Review: Wow...this show grabs your funny bone and won't let it go. A very funny show. The three actors who play a wide variety of characters which they slide smoothly from one to another. Kirk Blackinton's rapid-fire, smooth delivery was amazing to watch from his singing cowboy to his 1930's detective was so funny. The talented Wade Lucas was wild and hilarious with such characters as an Oriental female and an American Indian (to name but a few). He even bust-a-move and started rapping part of American History. And the very funny, Kris Hunt rounded out the talented trio and was wonderful especially at the climax of the show where she...no, you have to see it for yourself. We are coming back and bringing our friends.
- Gregory

Review: What a fantastic show!! Full of energy and non stop laughs. The talents of the actors are brilliant and mesmerizing to watch! A definite Must See!

Review: Fun fun fun! I was thoroughly entertained by this production. Even performing for a tiny audience of five, the cast was full of energy and verve. Fast paced and delightful. Not a dull moment. Great cast, great space, great show! Well done!

Review: Can 3 people really sum up all of American History AND make you laugh the entire time? Apparently so. And while you're laughing, the zingers keep coming. From subtle nuances to outright irreverence, The Complete History of America (Abridged) will entertain and (shockingly) educate. The energy that Kirk Backington, Kris Hunt and Wade Lucas bring to their performance will leave you breathless (along with the laughter)!

Review: Our group of ten saw it tonight...lots of laughs excellent delivery of very clever dialogue and director Shannon outstanding.....
