audience reviews

Les Précieuses Ridicules/Them Precious Little Ladies, California Stage

Review: An amazing show and so powerful! Not a dud song in the entire show and the singers are truly talented. I was very moved and was transported by the experience. I am going to see it again tonight so I can share it with a friend.

Review: In town for the weekend, I happened on this show because I was curious what a town like Sacramento was up to producing a bi-lingual classic in French and English--Who would have thought? To say it exceeded the expectations of my curiosity would be an understatement in the extreme! James C. Anderson's performance is extraordinary for its sheer stamina and continued ability to charm, delight and surprise in elegant French and then turn around and do it again in English. As I have only limited French I may not be the best judge, but the French speakers sitting in front of me were in stitches,--and for the English version--Bravo! The show in either language lasts under an hour, and it flew by. I recommend the show wholeheartedly.
