Santaland Diaries, Capital Stage

Review: Santaland Diaries is a fantastically humorous holiday show. It can be both naughty and nice. I had never seen a one-person show before, and was a little unsure. I went away extremely thrilled ! Gary Alan Wright walks you through the process of applying for an Elf position at Macys Santaland. After being lucky enough to get an interview, take written exams, and drug tested, he is hired to be an Elf. We then see him train to be an Elf, and of course then work as an Elf at Macys Santaland. His observations of parents, kids, other Elfs, various Santas, bosses, is stunning and laugh out loud funny. This is not your usual holiday tale, but it is a very pleasant ride.
