Hunter Gatherers, Capital Stage

Review: This play is absolutely riveting, hilarious, provocative, smart, startling, fun. I can't remember when I've laughed as hard and thought "Oh my GOD! Did they just DO that?" as many times. Seriously, try and catch the final four performances June 24-27. The acting is consistently high-energy and precise, walking the fine line between savage farce and sheer horror with delicacy and gusto. Direction by Jonathan Williams, who also plays uber-nerd Tom, keeps the pacing brisk and the humor beautifully timed. Handsome sets, great music. This is another Capital Stage classic and a Must-See!
