audience reviews

Mrs. Cage, Celebration Arts

Review: I just saw Mrs. Cage at Celebration Arts Theater and I want to tell everyone not to let it be overlooked. Brandon Rubin is excellent as the longsuffering police officer who listens and encourages and cajoles and bullies Mrs. Cage (Voress Franklin, 2008 Elly Award winner) as she explains what led up to her shooting of another woman in the parking lot of the supermarket. It's a short play, one act, about an hour long but I think it could justifiably be described as a tour-de-force by Ms Franklin as she assembles the pieces of the puzzle that finally reveal what drove her to an apparently senseless act of violence. It's funny, it's sad, it's compelling, it's gripping. Go see it.
