audience reviews

A Raisin In The Sun, Celebration Arts

Review: This is an excellent play, a classic, and one that has surprising relevance given the recent presidential election and world affairs. The setting is very intimate and the audience participation added to the energy of the show. The production was very good and the actors poured their hearts out onto the little stage. Especially notable were Alana Mathews-Davis and James Ellison. Go see this classic. You won't be disappointed.
