

- productions
- in the spotlight
- behind the scenes
- ticket services
- theatre dining guide
- about the league
- employment opportunities
- auditions

audience reviews

The Best Man, Chautauqua Playhouse

Review: The Best Man, currently at the Chautauqua Playhouse in Carmichael, is a step above the usual for that venue. I found the play convincing and worth a visit for those that usually don't do community playhouse. All of the actors did a great job, but particularly the two running for office and the ex-president. Highly recommended.

Review: The intimate Chautauqua Playhouse delivers another great evening of entertainment. The Best Man is about two of the Democratic candidates who are vying to be the party's Presidential nominee. The play looks at what the two men and their wives will do to win the contest. Similar to what's happening today with Ms. Clinton and Mr. Obama. The acting and dialogue is very well. A must see for anyone interested in politics!!
- bill haehn

show me more information about this show

get tickets for this show

I've seen this and would like to review it

Close this window

Sign up to be notified about audition opportunities!

Sign up to be notified about classes and workshops!

Sign up to be notified about employment opportunities!

Sign up to be notified about new productions, audience reviews and events!

productions | in the spotlight | behind the scenes | ticket services
theatre dining guide | about the league | employment opportunities | auditions

© 2007 the league of sacramento theatres | webmaster@seeaplay.com

web site designed and developed by Blossom Web