Scrooge - 30th Anniversary Production, Chautauqua Playhouse

Review: I saw this show opening weekend, and what a great time I had! Since most people are familiar with the plot, I won't go on about that. Suffice to say Rodger Hoopman returns as Scrooge for the 30th year, and leads one of the most charming casts he has assembled for this particular show. The show boasts such talented locals as Hoopman, Warren Harrison, Chris Quandt, Salina Donek and many others. Donek's costumes are, as usual, a colorful, visual delight. To see her actually onstage, too, is an infrequent treat. I have seen Rodger Hoopman's Scrooge probably half a dozen times during it's 30 year seasonal run, and it never fails to put me in the Christmas mood. I recommend it highly!

Review: The entire family enjoyed this show. It is so moving and the cast members were "in to" their roles. I enjoyed this more that the current Disney version that is out. Great cast. Chris Lamb is a great Marley and Ghost of Christmas Present. Roger Hoopman as Scrooge is intense and believable. My daughter loved the ghost of Christmas past.
