audience reviews

Kiss Me Kate, City of Rocklin

Review: A good show that would be so much stronger if cut by 20-30 minutes.

Review: WOW! A completely entertaining show! And what fantastic costumes! Incredible! Some of the songs could have been cut down to shorten the overall running time, but the opening group numbers in both acts were wonderful - in song and dance! Some great individual performances too! The gangsters were hilarious and believable, the General was outrageously funny, and Hattie has an incredible voice! There's tap dancing that's surprisingly good, and a great supporting cast, with lots of good song and dance! And some really good swing dancing from Paul and Hattie in the beginning of the second act! Great chemistry there! All the leads carried themselves well. Definitely worth the ticket price! High recommendation from me!

Review: I saw this show Friday night (28th) and it was wonderful! A bit too long in some of the music, but overall wonderful. I really enjoyed the characters on-stage. Petrucio (Mark) was wonderful and his voice was splendid. My favorite was Lucentio played by Tyler Thompson. He was so energetic and could dance! A guy that can tap, very impressive especially with his height. I laughed so hard when the gangsters came out all dressed up!!! Kudos to the costume department on all of the pieces!!! The show is a must-see for those that like good singing and dancing.
