audience reviews

Pippin, El Dorado High School Studio 81

Review: I had never seen Pippin before and I have to say this production is fabulous! It is a very fun show and great for a summer evening. The choreography is wonderful and very different. The vocals are all very strong too. Ryan Blanning as the Leading Player is phenomenal - he is a true triple threat and is so fun to watch. The whole cast is great and you can tell they are having a fun time up there.

Review: Very well done!! I had to come back a second time it was so good! Everyone was very strong in their parts. This is a must see for summer, and the outdoor amphitheater makes it such a fun event.

Review: The cast in this show were all exceptional. Talent beyond limits. The singing and harmony of each and every unique character was above expectations at this level. It brought both my husband and I to tears and to our feet. Of exceptional talent we must acknowledge Ryan Blanning who was mandatory to this play to bring everything together. His dancing, acting, expression, and singing skills are a must see for us, every show we can make in his future. All the cast members in this play have a bright future ahead of them and especially the leader that stood out with shining talent, Ryan Blanning. We were shocked to hear at the end of the show that he performed exceptionally with an eye injury. We hope to return for a second viewing tonight, the closing night, and are excited to be an audience to this delightful group... GO PIPPIN!!!!

Review: Having never seen Pippin before, I didn't really know what to expect. I found the show to be very entertaining and the outdoor venue was perfect for a warm summer evening. It is campy and funny in a Monty Python-ish way. There are some wonderful tender moments as the plot develops. I even got tears when Catherine sang. The main characters Pippin, The Leading Player, Charles, Fastrada, Catherine, and Louis are all perfectly cast with extremely talented students. I would highly recommend seeing this one before it's too late.

Review: Outstanding singing, dancing, comedy, energy, and a plot twist at the end. A terrific show in a great venue, at a fraction of the cost of other productions in the area. Recommend for all ages.

Review: Awesome show--WOW!!! Pippin is non-stop entertainment! The excellent cast made this show an incredible adventure, ranging from completely hilarious to very touching. Hats off to Director Paul Tomei for an excellent job--the chemistry within the cast was a joy to watch. Each and every character was fully developed and the acting was wonderful. The choreography(Kat Katona)was amazing--a true work of art! Also, the vocals were beautiful!! The talent in this show is incredible! Overall an exceptional production!!! This is a show that you do not want to miss!

Review: Loved this show. Absolutely amazing choreography, colorful costumes, beautiful harmonies. Congratulations to the cast and crew & Paul Tomei on a job well done. This show is a breath of fresh air, and I'd highly recommend it to anyone who wants to be entertained and have a night of pure fun!
