audience reviews

All My Sons, River Stage

Review: Fabulous production of a stellar play. Superb acting. The entire audience was riveted for the entire evening. You could hear a pin drop in the theater.

Review: This is an excellent production of a deep and thought provoking play. Arthur Miller did an astounding job of drawing in the audience with his story and these actors have all done an equally astounding job of bringing these characters to life. You walk out of the theatre with a different outlook on the world and what it means to be a member of a society where money and profit mean more than honor.
