A Midsummer Night's Dream, Winters Theatre Company

Review: Simply the best production of this Shakespeare play I have ever seen. All the characters come alive and the costumes are marvelous. Larry Justice plays the best Bottom I have ever seen. You will start laughing before he re-enters the stage -- he is that good. The outdoor seating is great. The Quince players are all wonderful and will give you a laugh. The fairies are delightful and King Oberon and the Queen of the fairies are on top of their parts. The Hupes have done it again -- Howard directing and playing "Wall" and Germaine for her expertise in scripting. You can't miss with this one. See it!
